TERMINATION OF MOU

The MoU shall remain in effect from the date of execution until terminated by either party.

1. Mutual Termination:

Circumstances may arise in which both parties wish to terminate their performance of the MoU. If both PARTY A and the PARTY B agree to terminate the MoU, no new charge can be made to the MoU or project from the mutually agreed upon termination date forward. After the termination date both parties will have 90 days to close out accounts, if applicable.

2. Non Mutual Termination:

Circumstances may arise when one of the parties seeks to terminate the MoU. Either party may terminate this MoU for cause without the agreement of the other. Such a non-mutual termination will be entertained only with genuine and valid reason for termination by communicating to the other party's registered address in written.

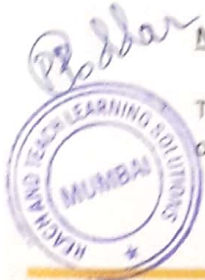

Within 30 days, after receipt of a request from either party for termination of the MoU, the other party will provide an appropriate written response. The two parties shall agree upon the termination conditions, including the effective date (which shall be 60 days after the two parties agree to termination). The PARTY B or PARTY A shall not incur new obligations for the terminated portion after the effective date and shall cancel as many outstanding obligations as possible. Either Party shall allow full credit to the other for any non-cancelable obligations properly incurred by the parties prior to termination. In no event shall either party be liable for any cost or charge actually incurred after the effective date of termination.

GOVERNING LAW

This agreement will be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of India and subject to exclusive jurisdiction of courts of Mumbai, India.

NATURE OF THE AGREEMENT

The nature of this agreement is completely a non-exclusive and each party is free to work with any other organizations for the same scope of work.

PUBLICITY AND ACADEMIC FREEDOM

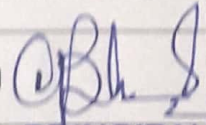

Press release, or any other written statements, in connection with work performed under this agreement intended for use in public media can be made by either party, however; in any such statements, the parties shall describe the scope and nature of participation from both the parties accurately and appropriately. The parties acknowledge the subject matter of the Program and resulting reports can involve scientific and technological innovations in which the owner of the work will have a proprietary interest.

Subject to the provisions of this article, PARTY A or PARTY B shall have the right to publish or otherwise publicly disclose information it develops in the performance of this agreement.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

During the term of this MoU, either party shall not use Confidential Information for any purpose whatsoever other than for the operations of the MoU or disclose the same to any third party. In case the either party is required by law to disclose Confidential Information, such requirement shall be intimated and get the written approval from the other party reasonably prior to such disclosure. The obligations under this clause shall survive for the duration of MoU and for the time later.

PARTY B will not copy, sublicense, add, lease, sell, rent, modify, reproduce, directly or indirectly (including over the internet or via other electronic means) the confidential information pertaining to the MoU. All the confidential information either printed or electronic copies will be appropriately marked as confidential and restricted.
