

Training imparted to Students

Students are encouraged to use application software which are not in the curriculum but are used in industries.

To access the experimentation at advance level in the concerned subjects regular visits to R &D departments and industries are organized.

Students are encouraged training in the industry.

Students are encouraged to do in house projects which are funded by institute.

Students are encouraged to participate in national and international competitions.

- Guest Lectures by experts on the contemporary topics in the field of Instrumentation Engineering.
- Industrial visits to gain the practical exposure.
- Field based assignment
- Case study approaches in teaching learning process.
- Encouraging the students to attend various refresher courses / seminars / conferences / workshops to gain knowledge in the emerging areas of the discipline.

The list of companies where the students taken / undergone training with staff members :

Siemens India Ltd. Mumbai.

PROLIFIC Systems & Technologies PVT. Ltd.

RCF Ltd. Mumbai.

Forbes Marshal, Pune.

Emerson Process Management Pvt. Limited.

Yokogawa Ltd. Mumbai.

ESSAR Ltd. Mumbai.

Training for Staff members

- Training on “Introduction to Delta-V DCS System” for all teaching faculty from 18th November to 21st November 2013 at Emerson Process Management Pvt. Limited